

SCOPE & SEQUENCE

Unit	Objectives	Language	Vocabulary
W Here We Go!	Expressing hopes and making promises. Setting goals.	I want to get better at math. I will take karate lessons in November. I promise to share, to listen, and to have fun. I hope to read more books. I will practice three times a week.	afraid, art exhibition, confident, field trip, friendly, grade, helpful, obey, pledge, promise, questionnaire, respect, science fair specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, time limit
1 Special Occasions	Asking about and describing food. Expressing quantity. Pronunciation: Stressed syllable Expressing if something is adequate or not.	How much cheese is there? A little. How many do we need? A lot. Make sure there are enough healthy options. Don't eat too many fries.	barbecue, cake, chocolate, cookies, delicious, delightful, dessert, flour, honey, juicy, nutritious, oil, picnic, salt, sweet, tasty, yummy cornbread, cranberry, food groups: fruit, vegetables, grains, protein; creamy, muffin, pasta, potatoes, poultry, sauce, sliced, squeezed
2 Incredible Journeys	Expressing interrupted and ongoing actions in the past. Pronunciation: Connected speech ("t") Narrating a story with reference to time and place.	They were waiting while Hillary and Norgay were climbing. He was holding his axe when Hillary took his picture. It was 1872 when Phileas decided to go on a journey. They arrived in Bombay, where they caught a train.	avalanche, axe, camp, easy, glacier, mountaineer, scared, successful, summit, unconscious beach, board, bus station, by train, journey, passengers, scary, steam boat, timetable, truck
3 Future Lives	Making plans and describing predictions. Pronunciation: Contractions Asking and talking about possibilities.	I'm going to study journalism. This invention will help me. Pets of the future might be robots. We could have shirts that measure our temperature.	conclusion, digital camera, drone, gadget, GPS, hypothesis, needle, offline, purpose, results, robotic, satellite, smartphone, straws, tablet, thread augmented reality, headset, social networks, wearable technology
4 Entertainment	Describing finished or unfinished events. Pronunciation: Sentence stress Talking about the recent past and things you expect to happen.	I have liked rap since last year. How long have you played it? For three years. I went with my Dad last month. Many movies have already sold out. Have you registered yet? Multi-Cinemas have just announced a festival.	band, bang, clap, concert, guitar, instrument, pluck, singer, string, strum, tambourine acting, amazing, animation, boring, comedy, directing, drama, exciting, funny, huge, genre, magical, plot, scene, science fiction, screenwriting, terrifying, tiny

SCOPE & SEQUENCE

Unit	Objectives	Language	Vocabulary
5 A Closer Look	Describing objects; describing a process. Pronunciation: Syllable stress Describing past inventions.	Plastic is often used for toys. That's why clothes are made from them. The wheel was used on chariots for the first time. It was 10,000 years later that wheels were invented.	cardboard, fabrics, glass, metal, paper, plastic, wood; absorbent, breakable, flexible, transparent Large numbers; axle, bamboo, chariot, chew, cloth, heavy, nest, pottery, rim, round, skin, spoke, stone, tire, wasp, wheel
6 Sports, Games, and Rules	Expressing obligation and prohibition. Giving advice. Pronunciation: Silent letters Making suggestions and decisions.	You must also wear your elbow pads. You don't have to wear them. Megan decided to help. I enjoy running. I suggest changing the rules.	brakes, gloves, guards, guess, helmet, knee, knock, know, seat, signal, squeeze, slide, wrist, write, tongue, wrong compete, competitor, disappoint, exhausted, extra-curricular, good at, injury, inspire, peer pressure, suggest, track club
7 Animals and Survival	Making suggestions. Expressing general truths. Pronunciation: Rhyming vowel sounds Describing real possibilities in the future. Giving opinions.	We should take it to the animal shelter. They should give the cat some food. When it gets extremely cold, birds migrate south. If an animal is in hibernation, it survives on body fat. If this does not stop, leatherbacks will disappear. If an environment changes, some animals will become endangered.	adapt, bite, defend, frightened, growl, hibernation, hunt for, look around, predator, prey, purr, scratch, survival, survive, territory, threatened, tough abandoned, adopt, behave, disappear, endangered, extinct, habitat, protect, safe, shelter, species, take care of, threat, turtle
8 Invitations and Plans	Inviting and responding. Pronunciation: Stressed syllables -ty and -teen Talking about plans and future arrangements.	Would you like to come to my house? Sure. How about going to the beach? I'd love to. My cousin Emiliano is visiting at the weekend. He is staying for three weeks.	find out, get along, get together, give up, go over, look forward to Adverbs of manner: busily, happily, loudly, politely, quickly, quietly, sadly
9 Stay in Touch!	Talking about past, present, and future events. Persuading others.	I think I have become more responsible. When there was a problem, we helped each other. Let's stay in touch! Don't forget to tell me your news! Sign up for clubs to make new friends.	determination, interested in, nervous about, optimism, participate in, proud of, responsibility, teamwork assignments, clubs, creative, grades, homework, illustrator, imaginative, laugh, locker, miss, schedule, successful, tour