

Unit 5

Environmental Awareness is having an awareness of the damage that humanity has done to the environment, and the ways in which we can work as individuals, communities, and as a society to try to repair some of that damage.

-  Notice the things you do at home to help the environment.
-  Participate in school campaigns to take care of nature.